Prati

Must-see highlights: stroll along the grand Via Cola di Rienzo for some of Rome's best shopping, admire the majestic Palazzaccio (Palace of Justice), wander through Piazza Cavour's tree-lined square, and, of course, take a short walk to the nearby Vatican City to marvel at St. Peter's Basilica and the Sistine Chapel.

Refined, orderly, and quietly sophisticated, Prati feels like a deep breath in the heart of Rome. Its wide boulevards and stately buildings tell of a more modern chapter in the city's history — one of elegance and confidence.

Here, mornings begin with the aroma of coffee drifting from stylish cafés, where locals read the paper and watch the world go by.

In the afternoon, sunlight glints off marble facades as shoppers move between chic boutiques and historic pasticcerie. By evening, the rhythm softens: friends gather for aperitivo in cozy wine bars, and laughter echoes through the elegant streets that lead toward the glowing dome of St. Peter's.

Prati is the Rome of grace — less chaotic, more balanced, yet still undeniably alive. It's a neighborhood where history and modern life walk hand in hand, and where every corner whispers a quiet promise of beauty, taste, and timeless Italian charm.
